Liberalism is founded on the belief in human liberty. Unlike rats and monkeys, human beings are supposed to have “free will”. This is what makes human choices the ultimate moral and political authority in the world.

If you happened to be amid the riots in Washington on the day after Martin Luther king was assassinated, or in Paris in May 1968, or at the Democratic party’s convention in Chicago in August 1968, you might well have thought that the end was near. While Washington, Paris and Chicago were descending into chaos, the soviet system seemed destined to endure forever. Yet 20 years later it was the soviet system that collapsed. The clashes of the 1960’s strengthened liberal democracy, while the stifling climate in the soviet bloc presaged its demise.
